MESSAGE OF SUPPORT FROM MINISTER OF EDUCATION

Our youth are our most valuable resources. Not only are they the foundation of our future but they are also the innovators and administrators of our future. It is therefore a paramount consideration that our youth are knowledgeable, morally enlightened and psychologically balanced to face the future with confidence. This requires development of both their minds and bodies.

The pursuit of sporting excellence develops aspects of character that cannot be learnt from books. The ability to perform under pressure, work as a team and take risks are all necessary for future success. Opportunities like the MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament are a platform for young people to build and nurture strong friendships, and engage in healthy competition and push their boundaries. I therefore congratulate The Malay College Kuala Kangsar on its initiative in organising this tournament.

We in the Government have often noted that success can only be achieved when everyone is willing to pool their resources.

An event like the MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament would not be possible without the strong support of the corporate sector. Their contributions here today is indicative of their commitment to nurture the young and I applaud them on their foresight and hope they will continue their support in years to come not just for the MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament but similar projects that may come their way.

I have no doubt that the participants in this tournament will play hard but it is also my wish that they also take this opportunity to learn and share to discover that unique quality that makes them Malaysian.

Let the tournament begin!
Yours sincerely,

Y.A.B. Tan Sri Dato' Haji Muhyiddin bin Haji Mohd Yassin

It is a great honour and pleasure for everyone at MCKK to have this opportunity to welcome all participants, officials, supporters, old boys and spectators to this MCKK Premier 7s Rugby tournament.

One of my fondest memories of 2011 was the tremendous success of the inaugural tournament. Thanks must go to the teachers and staff of MCKK under the direction of Mr Badri Abdul Manaf, the many helpers provided by the local authorities, the local folks of the royal town, and, of course, the meticulous organization and efforts of MCOBA's All Blacks Revival, under the chairmanship of Mr Zain Yusof. I would also like to extend a special thanks to the main sponsors of this event. You have been of invaluable help generously in the preparation of this big event. Without you, it would not have been possible to bring and assemble 24 contending teams.

The tournament under the patronage of His Highness, Raja Muda Perak Darul Ridzuan, Raja Dr Nazrin Shah ibni Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah will accommodate 23 local teams and 1 international team thus consolidating MCKK Premier 7s as the most prestigious school rugby tournament in Malaysia.

The Challenge Trophy, the N. J. Ryan Trophy, is named after the late Dato' N.J.Ryan who initiated the formation of a rugby team in MCKK. Sadly, the iconic figure drew his last breath on the 22 of April last year. He will always be remembered for his contributions towards the school especially for being instrumental in the development of rugby. We will miss him and may his soul rest in peace.

Last but not least I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all schools involved in this event and everyone who has worked hard in making this event a success. I hope the games will be played in the highest spirit of true sportsmanship and may the best team win.

*Anand Baharuddin,
Principal of The Malay College Kuala Kangsar*

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Asalamualaikum warahmatullah
hiwabarakatu

I am pleased to announce that the 'MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament', under the Patronage of His Highness the Raja Muda of Perak, and participated by 24 schools from Malaysia and overseas, will again be held on the 25th and 26th of February 2012 at the College grounds in Kuala Kangsar.

This year's tournament, the second to be held, is expected to be as successful as that was held last year where thousands flocked to the College grounds to watch the games as well as to enjoy the carnival atmosphere of the occasion. It is hoped, insyallah, that it will continue as an annual event fixed in the calendar of MCKK and the people of Kuala Kangsar.

This initiative by MCOBA is intended to not only revive rugby in The Malay College but also to develop and promote the game to all schools in general and particularly to North Perak schools.

The ABR Committee of MCOBA, formed to manage this task and consisting of mainly MCOB volunteers, has tirelessly devoted their time and effort all year round towards the success of the rugby development programme and together with MCKK is again able to organise the 2012 MCKK Premier 7s Rugby tournament. Congratulations and thank you.

I must also thank the Deputy Prime Minister who is also the Minister of Education as well as the sponsors, from amongst MCOBs and non-MCOBs, who believed in us and the significance of sports as a tool of leadership and character-building and has given their support and generous contributions to this programme.

On behalf of MCOBA and all Old Boys of the Malay College Kuala Kangsar, I welcome you to the College Grounds and Kuala Kangsar to witness this yearly event.

'FIAT SAPIENTIA VIRTUS'

Tan Sri, Dato' Seri Megat Najmuddin Megat Khas

*President, The Malay College Old Boys
Association (MCOBA)*

MESSAGE FROM A.B.R CHAIRMAN

The inaugural MCKK Premier 7's held last year was a great success. This was due to the sincere and proactive involvement by all parties, the Ministry and Perak Education Department, the Headmaster, staff and students of MCKK, the contributions of the ABR sub-committees, the Sponsors who believed in our P7s, the participating schools and the cooperative local authorities of Kuala Kangsar. Topping the event must surely be the Royal Dinner held at the Palace graced by His Highness Raja Muda Perak.

Encouraged by the success of last year, the committee is inspired to go an extra mile for this tournament. We initiated the redevelopment of the rugby field. We thank UEM for their kind contribution. We worked with a national radio network, AMP Radio, to publicise the event. We are inviting additional overseas schools to widen the network of the participants.

We wish to thank all our sponsors Telekom Malaysia, Scomi, MTU Services, UEM and many others who have contributed to this tournament. A special thank you also goes to YAB Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, Deputy Prime Minister and Education Minister who once again has donated a large contribution from the Malaysian Government. We are especially grateful to HH Raja Muda Perak for consenting to host the Royal dinner at the palace for all participating teams yet again.

I wish to welcome all participating schools to this tournament and to those from overseas, Selamat Datang to Malaysia. May the games be played in the true spirit of sportsmanship and hope when you return you will be able to bring back happy memories of Kuala Kangsar and the tournament. I hope you will take the opportunity to make new friends and renew old friendship.

To all supporters from old boys of all schools, parents and the town folks of Kuala Kangsar, I hope the entire carnival will bring long lasting memories to you. This is our way of paying back to the town where we grew up.

To all the local authorities we wish to thank you once again for your cooperation in facilitating the smooth movement of our tournament.

In the last tournament I invited the late Datuk N J Ryan who lived in Melbourne, Australia, to be with us. He apologized as he had already booked a sea cruise trip but promised to be with us next tournament. Sadly he passed away a few months later. We are glad to have with us Datin Josephine Ryan and his son Brandon for this tournament to keep the promise the late Datuk Ryan made.

Finally, to the Headmaster, staff and students of MCKK, I wish to thank all of you for making this tournament another great event.

Chairman, ABR Sub Committee, MCOBA*

TRIBUTE TO DATO' N.J. RYAN

An age-old Malay proverb came to life at a Catholic funeral in Melbourne last Thursday.

This discerning folk line about the value of a person's legacy was cited in thick, unadulterated Bahasa Melayu towards the end of the eulogy for headmaster Neil Ryan who once taught in Malaysia.

The event broke rigid traditions that could only come with the passing of someone so dear.

In fact, Ryan's funeral cut across at least three stiff boundaries -- geographical, language and, most significantly, religious.

Ryan, Irish by birth, died in Australia on April 22, 2011, many years after a legendary stint as a teacher in British Malaya.

And at the profound religious funeral at St Bede's Catholic Church, North Balwyn, Melbourne, it turned out that a Malay Muslim Malaysian, who had come all the way from Kuala Lumpur, was the one who delivered the eulogy, throwing in a Bahasa Melayu line as he spoke.

I managed to listen to a recording of the eulogy and it was so heartwarming -- a bit like the Lennonism pitch about the brotherhood of man.

"Harimau mati meninggalkan belang, manusia mati meninggalkan nama," said Datuk Khalilur Rahman Ibrahim as he concluded his seven-minute tribute to his mentor, translating the line to his awestruck mostly-Australian audience as "when a tiger dies, it leaves behind its stripes. When a man dies, he leaves behind his legacy".

Khalilur, a 62-year-old entrepreneur, was a quiet, diminutive student at the Malay College Kuala Kangsar when Ryan was headmaster in the early 1960s.

"He will always be our headmaster," he told the 200-odd people who came to pay their last respects.

This Muslim man, of all people, was the spokesman at the church funeral.

But knowing Ryan and his affinity with MCKK long after he retired, surely the former teacher couldn't have asked for more.

The funeral, according to Khalilur, was in the presence of Ryan's wife Josephine, his sons Brandon and Kevin, daughter-in-law Eithne, granddaughter Moya and about 200 close friends.

MCKK and its old boys (MCOBA), he added, were represented by several people, including Syed Abu Bakar Syed Salim, a fancy-free former art teacher well-liked by everyone.

What was perhaps most unmistakable about the kindred spirit was that Ryan, too, wore

“We all have our time machines. Some take us back, they're called memories. Some take us forward, they're called dreams.”

the conspicuous MCKK tie in the casket, as the college meant so much to him, according to his wife Josephine.

In his will, Ryan bequeathed his sizeable book collection to the MCKK library.

“Only as high as I reach can I grow, only as far as I seek can I go, only as deep as I look can I see, only as much as I dream can I be.”

“I delivered the eulogy and spoke about the man we knew and loved, his wisdom, dedication, sense of humour and his contribution to our nation,” said Khalilur.

That was some eulogy that I heard on tape. In front of a church crowd, it managed to capture the very essence of Ryan and MCKK, including Ryan’s love for his Jaguar Mark 2.

Khalilur began the eulogy thus: “I was 13 years old when I went to the school as a 4ft 2in (127cm) First Former and he was the 6ft 4in (193cm) headmaster.

“He had a Jaguar. He was a very humble and passionate man dedicated to his students.

“There are a few of us (from the school) here to honour this man. To share the grief with his family.

“I have always considered him my headmaster. We called him Mr Ryan. We liked him for all the right reasons. He was such a dedicated headmaster. I remember him most for his humour.

“There was one occasion when we were in class. There was a lot of noise and Mr Ryan walked in, asking what was going on.

“We told him we had no teacher as he had yet to come in. Then he asked us who the teacher was and we told him it was Syed Bakar.

“Mr Ryan said if the mountain couldn’t come about Ryan’s passion for Jaguar cars.

“It was one of the most beautiful cars then. I once asked him whether I could drive the car.

“He brushed me off until his last day in office in MCKK (in 1965) when he came over with the car keys dangling from his hand and asked me whether I wanted to drive his car.

“I was the only student ever to drive Mr Ryan’s Jaguar.

“The same Jaguar was kept in its original condition until more than 30 years later here in Australia. It showed his passion and it reflected the man.

“Mr Ryan, we wish and pray that you will have eternal happiness. We will always remember you. It is like the Malay saying harimau mati meninggalkan belang, manusia mati meninggalkan nama.”

In a church funeral far from Malaysia, that sentence certainly rang out loud.

to Muhammad, Muhammad must come to the mountain.

“And what he did was get all 30 students to Syed Bakar’s house to have the class conducted there.

“Syed Bakar is with us today. He was the school’s art teacher and a close colleague of Mr Ryan.”

Among other things, Khalilur also spoke

Special thanks to Datuk Khalilur Rahman Ibrahim (Class of ‘66), YTM Tunku Dato Seri Kamel Rijaludin and Dato Syed Nadzri (both Class of ‘71) for enabling us to pay tribute to this legendary gentleman.

THE TROPHY

The MCKK Rugby 7's trophy is one of a kind. It embodies the spirit of the game that is filled with speed and competitiveness. This gentlemen's game has always been inaccurately portrayed as rough when it is actually a spirited, tactical, powerful, smart and even a graceful game.

The design for this trophy is simple yet powerful. The elements portray the speed of a fast turning rugby ball. It is a dynamic representation of the game. The hollow body signifies the spirit of the game, which cannot be seen but could easily be felt and understood. The gleaming silver/pewter polish of the spiraling stripe depicts the force of the wind with its high velocity cutting through the air and at the same time giving the rugby spirit a well-defined shape – the rugby ball. The thin and deceptively fragile vertical support enhances the image of a fast-moving and flying ball. All these elements are contrasted by the heavy wooden base which is both traditional and formal. This base signifies the long heritage and culture of the game.

This MCKK Rugby 7's trophy is iconic, daring and eye-catching. It symbolizes the dynamics and integrity of the game. It celebrates the intensity and individuality of the tournament. It elevates the game, glorifies the tournament and honors the champion.

MALAY COLLEGE
KUALA KANGSAR

THE MALAY COLLEGE

The Malay College Kuala Kangsar (MCKK) is the first fully residential school in Malaysia. Its formation was proposed by the then Sultan of Perak, Sultan Idris Murshidul 'Adzam Shah I, and by Mr. R. J. Wilkinson, then Inspector of Schools for the Federated Malay States. The motion was supported by the three other Rulers of the Federated Malay States namely Sultan Aladdin Sulaiman Shah of Selangor, Yam Tuan Tuanku Muhammad Shah of Negeri Sembilan and Sultan Ahmad Mu'adzam Shah of Pahang.

Established on 2nd January 1905, it was originally known as the Malay Residential School of Kuala Kangsar. In recognition of its founder figures, the Sport Houses take the name of the founders: Idris (white), Sulaiman (red), Ahmad (black), and Mohd Shah (yellow).

Mr W. Hargreaves was appointed as the first headmaster to lead the establishment of the school which operated from a number of wooden houses. The impressive central Greco-Roman structure that is fondly referred to as the Big School was only completed and officially opened by the Sultan of Perak on 11th December 1909. The auspicious date also marked the change in the name of the school from the Malay Residential School of Kuala Kangsar to the Malay College of Kuala Kangsar. The present principal, Mr. Anand Baharuddin, is the 23rd college head since its establishment.

Initially the school was founded to educate the Malay elite – royal children and the sons of Malay nobility. Few of its early students were from amongst commoner families. This changed dramatically after 1947, when qualified Malay boys aged from 12 to 17 from all around the country are being educated here. MCKK prides itself on having produced a steady stream of leaders such as kings, sultans, prime ministers, ministers as well as senior officials in the government and leading figures in the private sector who have contributed towards the growth and progress of the nation. Since its inception, more than 7,000 boys (and interestingly 2 girls, too) have entered the gates of MCKK.

The college celebrated its centenary on 26th March 2005, attended by The Yang di-Pertuan Agong, Royal Rulers, dignitaries, old boys, and townspeople. Over the years, MCKK has also received a number of foreign Heads of States and diplomats to its humble grounds.

MCKK has recorded many firsts in its illustrious history and is noted for its capacity in successfully staging large-scale programmes and events at the national level. Last year, MCKK embarked on organising the grandest school-level invitational rugby tournament with international participation. The success of the first MCKK Rugby Premier 7s in 2011, where teams battled to win the N.J. Ryan Trophy (named after the 9th headmaster of MCKK) has added this tournament as another piece of tradition of this college.

THE FOUNDATION

The MCKK Foundation was established to provide financial and technical support for the overall improvement to The MCKK. The year 2011 saw some of the initiatives undertaken by The MCKK Foundation progressively taking shape. The success is through the combined efforts of the financial contributors, alumni, teachers and students.

INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE (IB)

The RM 10 million International Baccalaureate building complex, comprising classrooms, administrative offices, hostels and other facilities, was fully completed and delivered to The MCKK in April 2011.

The pioneer cohort of 18 students started their IB education in July 2011. The students are housed in the new complex equipped with modern facilities. They are taught by top rate academic staff that will make the MCKK IB Diploma Programme the pre-eminent and preferred institution to pursue the IB Diploma. It is planned that the 2012 intake in July would be about 60 students.

The IB Diploma offers a comprehensive and balanced curriculum and assessment system. Other than academic pursuit, in 2011 the students were involved in community service efforts like providing educational motivation to secondary school and leading or participating in community projects within the Kuala Kangsar vicinity. The students were also involved in the Peace day initiative at The Malay College Kuala Kangsar.

A plan is underway to organize an International Peace Day Conference in 2012. Work is also ongoing to produce a Kuala Kangsar Heritage Trail guide, targeted to be launched in conjunction with the birthday celebrations of DYMM Sultan of Perak birthday in April 2012.

TUN ABDUL RAZAK AUDITORIUM

The building of the RM8 million, auditorium started in January 2011. The auditorium is situated where the Industrial Art blocks and Tun Abdul Razak lecture theatre was before, in between the Prep School and the classroom block. Its forecourt will be marked by an open plaza that can accommodate various assembly and outdoor functions.

The auditorium is designed as a performing arts hall with a thrust stage; it provides an opportunity for both, performers and the audience to interact in an intimate setting. It would be equipped with state-of-the-art audio visual facilities. The auditorium would eventually encourage the development as well as the appreciation of performing arts and creative projects among students.

As of January 2012 the project is 82% complete, with expected commission by March 2012.

MALAY COLLEGE
ASSOCIATION

MCOBA: STRENGTHENING OLD SCHOOL TIES

On the morning of 16th March 1929, the little town of Kuala Kangsar awoke to a steady stream of motor-vehicles making their way through its shady lanes. The Old Boys were coming home. In total some 150 Old Boys converged on their alma mater that day. It was a day to pay homage to the place that had seen them through their boyhood and forged them into men, it was also the day the Malay College Old Boys Association (MCOBA) was formed with Raja Musa bin Raja Bhot elected as its founder president.

Over the years nothing seems to have slowed the MCKK Old Boys. Their loyalty and desire to participate in the growth and development of the school and play a pivotal role in nurturing the next generation has continued unabated through a World War, the birth and growing pains of the nation, through times of boom and bust, and social, political and technological change.

Over the years the ties between MCKK and MCOBA have been strengthened through initiatives like the "Old Boys Quota" under the Presidency Tan Sri Datuk Haji Mohd. Azmi bin Datuk Kamaruddin who served as President of MCOBA for 25 years. It was during his tenure that Bangunan MCOBA was built, funded by the generosity of the alumni. It was officially opened on the 3rd December 1977 by and DYMM Seri Paduka Baginda Yang Di Pertuan Agong, Tuanku Yahya Putra, an Old Boy of the school.

Under the leadership of Tunku Datuk Seri Adnan bin Tunku Besar Burhanuddin or Pak Engku as he is affectionately known, the Old Boys Association initiated the establishment of the MCOBA-OV Council (MCOV), which has been a step forward in enhancing the long friendship between Malay College and Vajiravudh College. Since that time many a golf game and warm reminiscences have been shared between Old Boys from both institutions.

MCOBA also enthusiastically participated in MCKK's centenary celebrations in 2005. Again, the Old Boys of MCKK made the town of Kuala Kangsar sit up and take notice as residents were treated to the grand spectacle of a reenactment of the First Durbar of the Malay Rulers complete with a procession of 7 elephants.

MCOBA has become more robust and active over the years, celebrating its 80th anniversary in 2009. The bonds between the Old Boys now extend into the corporate sector, recreation and social events like the Old Boys' Weekend, and the Annual Dinner which are fixtures on the MCOBA calendar. A key initiative in the past two years has been the creation of the MCKK archives, a massive undertaking which will collate, catalogue and store images and documents for research and reference purposes.

The development of MCKK and the provision of work-related and social skills are a paramount consideration for MCOBA. As such, MCOBA has funded initiatives like the "Malay College InfoLab".

In keeping with the strong tradition of sporting excellence of MCKK, the All Blacks Revival (ABR) held the inaugural MCKK 7s Premier Rugby Tournament in honour of Dato' N.J. Ryan last year. The Tournament is perhaps the most ambitious part of the initiative to revive MCKK's rugby tradition, awakening a passion for the game among the current students of MCKK and claim the glory of being the best team in the country.

After 80 years MCOBA holds the distinction of being one of the oldest and most active alumni associations in existence. The loyalty and passion of its members runs deep bringing to mind the famous words of Aristotle: "The whole is greater than the sum of its parts."

WORLD'S
No.1* ISOTONIC
SPORT DRINK

Gatorade is scientifically formulated for athletes to put back what sweat takes out. It is the only sports drink in the world backed by 40 years of scientific research.

- ✓ Zero Carbonation
- ✓ No Artificial Colouring or Preservatives
- ✓ No Caffeine

The role of fluids, carbohydrates and electrolytes

1. Fluids help you cool down, fight fatigue and deliver oxygen to your muscles.
2. Carbohydrates power you to perform by maintaining energy levels.
3. Electrolytes give you better hydration, stimulate drinking, maintain fluid balance and blood sodium level.

Sports drinks or energy drinks?

Water: Lack of electrolytes and also carbohydrates that are needed to give you energy.

Carbonated/Gassy Drinks: Carbonation can cause stomach discomfort. It is also high in sugar and takes longer to digest.

Energy Drinks: High in sugar and also caffeine that promotes dehydration.

QUALITY HEALTHCARE

Since our inception in 1981, KPJ Healthcare Berhad (KPJ) has cemented a reputation as one of the leading healthcare providers in the region with more than 20 specialist hospitals in Malaysia and 2 in Indonesia providing promotive, preventive and curative medical services. KPJ's education arm has been awarded a University College status in 2011.

OUR STRENGTHS

- Availability of more than 800 medical specialists as well as 8,000 supporting staff such as nursing, paramedic, pharmaceutical, technical and management services.
- Complementing the expertise of our specialists, our hospitals are equipped with modern medical technology as well as facilities that allow us to offer a comprehensive set of medical services including cardiac, orthopaedics, oncology, bariatric surgery, and reconstructive and plastic surgery, among others.
- Our commitment to patient safety is reflected in 10 KPJ hospitals being accredited by the Malaysian Society for Quality in Health (MSQH) which is affiliated with the International Society for Quality in Health Care (ISQua), while other hospitals are in the process of being accredited.
- KPJ hospitals also implement the Integrated Management System (IMS), thus guaranteeing high standards in quality services, environmental safety and health management.
- The abovementioned qualities have enabled KPJ hospitals to attract 2.2 million outpatients and 220,000 inpatients in 2010, including a sizeable amount of foreign patients from all over the world.
- The upgrading of KPJ's education arm to KPJ International University College of Nursing and Health Sciences (KPJIUC) in 2011, clearly signifies KPJ's efforts to continuously strive for excellence. This official upgrade is a testament to our unceasing commitment to excellence, and is a well-deserved recognition of KPJ's efforts in healthcare education.
