MESSAGE FROM THE MCOBA PRESIDENT

Assalamualaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh and warmest greetings to all.

On behalf of MCOBA - The Malay College Old Boys Association and host, Malay College Kuala Kangsar (MCKK), I welcome you to MCKK rugby grounds to witness the 2020 Edition of The MCKK Premier 7s (P7s) Rugby Tournament.

For the record, this year's Tournament marks a momentous milestone as it is the Tenth Edition (X Edition) in the MCKK P7s Rugby Tournament Series. Since the initial Tournament held in 2011, MCKK P7s has grown by leaps and bounds far exceeding its initial objectives of, amongst others, rekindling interest in rugby amongst traditional Malaysian rugby playing schools.

Today, not only there are more rugby tournaments being organised for school boys in the sevens, tens and fifteen versions of the game, Malaysian secondary school girls are also now actively playing rugby all over the country. Additionally, MCKK P7s has also positively impact other sports as well and this rekindled interest in sports at Malaysian Schools level and beyond augurs well for the well being of the country and its people.

The X Edition of The MCKK P7s Tournament is again organised under the patronage of His Royal Highness The Sultan of Perak, DYMM Paduka Seri Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah Ibni Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfurlah and, as per tradition - Malaysia's premier rugby schools tournament is able to feature champion rugby school teams from all Malaysian States as well as from the ASEAN region.

On behalf of MCOBA, I am taking this opportunity to congratulate the Joint Organising Committees of The Tournament, namely from MCKK itself and from MCOBA's All Black Revival (ABR) Committee, for successfully organising the 2020 MCKK P7s during these very challenging times. I would also like to record MCOBA's appreciation to all Sponsors and Supporters of the Tournament for their generosity and continuous support without which this X Edition of MCKK P7s will not be able to be organised.

Utmost appreciation also to all Staff and Students of MCKK and to the personnel and representatives of the various Institutions, Organisations and Authorities of Kuala Kangsar for their endorsement and active participation towards making this Tournament a reality.

To all the Old Boys of MCKK and the people of Kuala Kangsar - Thank You Very Much for the support extended to MCKK and MCOBA over the years and may this continue in the future.

To all the players and officials involved in the 2020 MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament, we wish you all the best, do enjoy the camaraderie and festivities on and off the field and may the best team wins.

MESSAGE FROM THE ABR COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN

ALL BLACKS REVIVAL

Assalamualaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh and warmest greetings to all.

On behalf of the All Blacks Revival (ABR) Committee, it is my honour and pleasure to welcome all participants, officials as well as rugby aficionados and supporters to the 2020 The Malay College Kuala Kangsar (MCKK) Premier 7s (P7s) Rugby Tournament.

This year's Tournament is indeed a special one as it is the Tenth (X) Edition in the MCKK P7s Series of rugby tournaments. This X Edition of the Tournament again feature 24 local and international school rugby teams competing for the prestigious NJ Ryan Trophy on the hallowed rugby grounds of MCKK. As per tradition, this Tournament continue to be organised under the patronage of His Royal Highness the Sultan of Perak, DYMM Paduka Seri Sultan Nazrin Muizuddin Shah Ibni Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfurlah.

Preparations for the 2020 Tournament had started very early so as to ensure a successful Tournament that will be memorable and enjoyable for all - on and off the field. Needless to say, this year's Tournament is organised amidst multiple challenges at the global, regional and national levels and hence, the ABR Organising Committee extends its utmost appreciation to all the participating Teams' players and officials. Special gratitude are also extended to Tournament Sponsors, the Ministry of Education, the various Local Authorities and Government Departments of Kuala Kangsar, Malaysian Rugby (MR) Officials as well as all Volunteers and Supporters involved in making this special edition Tournament a reality.

To all Tournament participants, in addition to giving your best on the rugby field, do allocate some time to enjoy the sights and sounds of the Tournament as well as take the opportunity to make new acquaintances. Believe me - the bonds established in this gentleman's game do extend beyond the rugby fields to the mutual benefit of all.

For the officials as well as supporters and spectators, do take the opportunity to enjoy the carnival events lined up for you over the three days of the Tournament. We also hope that you will make it a point to taste the delicacies of Kuala Kangsar as well as visit the various display tents and booths of our Sponsors and Vendors to acquire your Tournament merchandises, souvenirs as well as promotional items and goodies to commemorate your presence at the X Edition of The MCKK P7s Tournament.

For all MCKK Teachers and Staff as well as its students, present and past, the ABR Organising Committee wishes to record its gratitude and appreciation for the support extended over the years that made all ten editions of the MCKK P7s Rugby Tournament such a success.

Here's to an awesome weekend of rugby for all ...

KUALA KANGSAR

The Heart of Kuala Kangsar Town

by Helmy Had Sabtu (C'82)

As one moves about the town of Kuala Kangsar, one will surely come across the Town's historical Clock Tower which is strategically located in the middle of the Town's central traffic roundabout. Completed in 1939 to commemorate the coronation of King George VI, which actually took place in 1937, funding for its construction was provided by the Perak State Government as well as from contributions made by the people of Kuala Kangsar. The structure originally featured a turret clock at its top with four clock faces facing the four main streets of Kuala Kangsar, presently known as Jalan Daeng Selili, Jalan Istana, Jalan Kangsar, and Jalan Taiping.

Jalan Daeng Selili is named after the first Mufti of Perak who is widely recognised as the founder of Kuala Kangsar. Jalan Istana is the road heading up Bukit Chandan towards Istana Iskandariah -Perak's Royal Palace and the official residence of the Sultan of Perak. Jalan Kangsar is so named as it runs parallel to the Kangsar River while Jalan Taiping is the west-bound road heading towards Taiping - the administrative centre of Perak before Ipoh was designated as the State Capital in 1937.

Over the years, The Clock Tower had been featured as the centrepiece to celebrate occasions and events in Kuala Kangsar. From the annual social, cultural and religious celebrations such as the New Year Celebrations and the Sultan of Perak Birthday Celebrations, to special events such as the Coronation of the Sultan of Perak, the Clock Tower had experienced it all. However, two key events held special significance to the Tower. In 1957, in conjunction with the independence of the then Malayan Federation from Britain, the Clock Tower was re-dedicated to the country's Merdeka and the celebrations related to it. As the Tower celebrated its 50th Anniversary, a Gold Dome was added to the Clock Tower to commemorate the visit to Kuala Kangsar of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and His Royal Highness Prince Philip.

For the local townsfolk, the Jam Besar (literal translation : Big Clock), as it is popularly known, is a part of their daily lives. Standing majestically in between the "Old Town" and "New Town" areas of Kuala Kangsar, the Clock Tower represent the pulse of this Royal Town of Perak - not only in terms of traffic volume but also in terms of the daily activities of the people of Kuala Kangsar and its surroundings. Standing the test of time at the corner of Jalan Daeng Selili and Jalan Taiping is a building most synonymous with the Jam Besar - the Kuala Kangsar Post Office which was also built in the 1930s.

Across Jalan Daeng Selili from the Post Office is the area known as KK Old Town which featured several rows of pre-war shophouses as well as two major transportation hubs - the Town's former Bus Station and, further down, the Lembah area with its Jeti Penambang (River Boat Jetties) where the sampans, boats and ferries used to anchor while waiting for passengers on the banks of the Perak River. Presently, the Bus Station had been moved to another location while the Jeti Penambang had reduced in importance due to advances in road transport options as well as the opening of the Sultan Abdul Jalil Shah Bridge in 2002.

Meanwhile, the Lembah area has been developed in recent years to become a bustling trading hub of local products from food to traditional crafts. This area also feature weekend street markets selling fresh produce as well as local delicacies. There are also various permanent and mobile food stalls selling local specialties including the famous Kuala Kangsar Laksa and Chendol, amongs others.

As a Malay College Kuala Kangsar (MCKK) student in the late 1970s and early 1980s, the Post Office is a compulsory stop during the weekly Saturday Town Outings to collect Money Order Remit-tences for one's self or one's friends. With money in pocket, those from the junior forms would then head to the Shopping Bazaar {located at the corner of Jalan Istana and Jalan Kangsar) before heading to popular Malay eateries such as the Chendol and Laksa stalls along Jalan Shahbandar, as well as Kassim Restaurant (located on the banks of the River Kangsar) and Restoren Zabidi (located just across Taiping Road from the Post Office). Alas, these once popular hotspots have fallen victim to development and in their place, there is now the Dataran Putra Kuala Kangsar which is a recreational area featuring attractions such as the London Telephone Booth and the McDonnell Douglas A4 Skyhawk fighter jet.

By the way, the senior form MCKK Boys would be frequenting more exotic eateries that feature more privacy - the most famous establishment being the Yut Loy Restaurant that feature enclosed eating booths ... Ah, those were the days ;)

A final note - do allocate some time to walk around Kuala Kangsar Town visiting the various commercial establishment and tasting the various Malay, Chinese and Indian delicacies and, don't forget to snap a picture or two of you and the Jam Besar.

RISE AS A CHAMPION

Under the All Blacks Revival programme, Rugby has been the centre of attention among the oldboys and school administration. Working hand in hand is the recipe to succeed in bringing back rugby as the ethos of the school. It is very important to have strong and good development programme at the early stage as we plan more challenging games later part of the day.

The process is the hard part of the planning. It involves time, commitment, expenditure and so on. The values that the game possess will enrich the experience of the boy to become the man. Then becoming the man in the true life.

Among the batches, only those who dare will be The All Blacks.

From form 1 until form 5, the boys will train daily not only to sweat but gain the honour to be called as the All Blacks of MCKK. Among the batches, only those who dare will be The All Blacks. The rugby game played on the field by the boys daily had attracted many locals to watch even for friendly matches. With this tenth edition, the people of The Royal Town are ready for another high class rugby game of the year.

In Memory Of GHAZALI BAHAREIN

by Hisham Badrul Hashim (C'76)

Here today, gone tomorrow.. Where have I heard this before? Life is indeed so fickle ...

I distinctly remember waking up to the sound of a WhatsApp ping from a friend at 2.40 a.m. on 17th June 2019 : "Whats the story on Ghaz B?" I answered "Story?" ... "Passed away...an hour ago".

I checked the messages at the other WhatsApp groups and there it was - message received from Ghaz B's wife, Mimi : "Ghaz baru sahaja meninggal dunia di Hospital Ampang" (Ghaz has just passed away at Ampang Hospital) - I said a silent prayer of "innalilahi wainnahirajioun" ... There were a few other messages reaffirming the sad and shocking news ... Allahummaghfirlahu warhamhu wa'afihi wa'fu'anhumma.

Another fine MCKK Old Boy left us that day. Arwah Ghazali Kamal Baharein, or simply Ghaz, was a dedicated Malay College Old Boy (MCOB) from the Class of 62. A pleasant and honourable gentleman - a kind and generous soul with an affinity and ability to offer his perspectives in an honest, intelligent and critical fashion.

A graduate of the University of Malaya, Arwah Ghaz had also attended several post-graduate executive programmes at high profile learning institutions such as Cambridge University and Harvard Business School. Arwah started his career as an Assistant District Officer (ADO) in the Malaysian Civil Service and later became one of the pioneers in FELDA Marketing (FELMA). He was very passionate about FELDA and could tell you everything you need to know about the institution. In recent years, with minor prodding, he would go into tirades about the shenanigans in FELDA perpetrated by its previous Management.

Ghaz was also very passionate about MCOBA. He served as the Executive Secretary of MCOBA for 8 years from 2006 to 2014 and over the years, he had also served in many of its Committees and Sub-Committees. He was involved in the organising of the MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament (P7s) since its first tournament in 2011 until the ninth Tournament held in 2019.

Reflecting the gentlemen that Arwah was, he was tasked with the most delicate of portfolios - Protocol, where his diplomacy and empathy often came in handy. The job involved Arwah having to liaise not only with the VIPs (Very Important Persons) themselves but also with the people around the VIPs who may be even more demanding than the VIP themselves. A special feature of the MCKK P7s Tournament is the Royal Dinner on Saturday Nights where Arwah Ghaz was the one personally responsible in "making it happen".

Another portfolio he was often tasked with was handling the accommodation for the Committee Members, Media and VIPs where Arwah had to juggle quite a bit to ensure everyone were happy with whatever rooms they were assigned with. Over the years, especially during the early days of the Tournament, there were lots of incidences of "unexpected guests" turning up at unexpected times asking about their rooms and Arwah somehow managed to handle such ambushes with aplomb - seemingly able to conjure up rooms with ease even though Hotels and Guest Houses in Kuala Kangsar Town was fully booked since months before ...

For this X Edition of the MCKK Premier 7s Rugby Tournament, Arwah Ghaz's presence will be surely missed by all involved in the organisation of the 2020 Tournament and on Saturday Night during the Royal Dinner, let us all give our special prayers to a very special gentleman - MCOB Ghazali Kamal Baharein. May you be placed amongst the Righteous. Aameen.

MCOBA @ 90

by Hisham Badrul Hashim (C'76)

The Malay College Old Boys Association (MCOBA) turns 90 last year. How does one feel on one's 90th birthday? Not very differently from the last 'round one' ten years ago. But the world has different rules: at 30 you are still an adolescent, at 40 a grown entity; nowadays being 50, 60 or even 70 classify you to be in early, high and late middle age. At 80 you start really aging, but 90? There is no real label: you are an antique! Priceless!

MCOBA was born in 1929, the year of the Wall Street crash, which ushered in the Great Depression in the USA. Keen to list for this piece some lesser known and less depressing events to commemorate its birth in the Malay College Kuala Kangsar, followed by a Grand Dinner in Kuala Lumpur, Google says in Malaya 1929, tea was first grown in the Cameron Highlands that started the tea plantations. MCOBA shares the same birth year with Imelda Marcos, ex- First Lady of the Philippines, Barbara Walters, a USA. Broadcaster journalist and the Bollywood Music legend Lata Mangeshkar, whose voice has serenaded millions for years. MCOBA has survived a World War and has fought many wars of its own since its inception. MCOBA is even older than all the political parties in this country.

At the age of 90 (a nonagenarian, according to Webster Dictionary and other similar dicts) people look at you closely and ask you, as a rule, whether you are still working or have retired and even being a role model. In some cases, people make a comeback to lead, to work longer hours, travel more and have branched out in several new directions to put things right. For MCOBA, age is a matter of feeling, not of years.

There's one word to sum up being 90-year-old. Just one word: Gratitude or Syukur! In short, MCOBA seems to have more of it than it ever did before. It's a word we hear a lot this time of year, as we re-connect with our loved brethren's and celebrate our shared connections. But the act of giving thanks – of being profoundly grateful for life's blessings – isn't just about tradition: Science says it's good for us. When we think about what we appreciate, our body responds by increasing oxytocin, the feel-good hormone. Other than being about tradition, it's about continuing the pride, fun and passion of the sense of belonging of a common Alma Mater that matters.

Being 90 has brought MCOBA a new appellation: witness to the century. A venerable title, which led to part of the making of a new Independent nation together with being a major and substantial part in its growth and development.

Happy birthday, MCOBA. You had a 90th birthday that gives you even more reason to sip from the elixir of life. May your each day be filled with glow of warm sun, may you find strength in the ties that bind together all MCOBs.

Ninety years old used to sound ancient, but judging from YouTube, 90 is the new 70. Or even the new 25. MCOBA had a grand 90th birthday celebration in 2019 that gives you even more reason to sip from the elixir of life. Undeniably, MCOBA has aged gracefully!

MCOBA' favorite birthday gift would be the arrival of new generation of members into its fold. It is hope they will live nine decades and beyond, and that these contemporaries will carry the torch a good way farther along the road. It's a path with turns and potholes. It meanders, even doubles back. But seen from a distance – a distance, say, of 90 years – the road tends in a good direction. May the alumni legend lives on!

MCOBA Inspires

 - d. If a decision is still not reached, the qualifying order shall be determined by the drawing of lots.
 - ii. If any team gives a walkover in the Group matches, all their games will be deemed null and void. They will be placed last in their group irrespective of the results of their other matches.

SUSTAINING OUR STRENGTH ENRICHING LIVES

As our core business hinges on management of water and power, we aspire to forge a leading and exemplary role in sustainability by taking the economic, environmental and social factors into account at every level we operate in.

We continue to grow by focusing on closing the gap and doing it sustainably.

Believe it or not, our Nation
has been built by electrons

Over 70 years, our commitment to national development has rewarded one and all. Small, medium and large-scale industries have emerged and grown. Malaysians nationwide are now accustomed to the comforts that electricity can provide. We do all this to better lives for a brighter tomorrow.
